

Questions

(1) Describe in a few sentences what you just heard

- Motivation
- Approach / method
- outcome / results

(2) What are the main scientific contributions / What does it tell us what we didn't know before?

(3) How realistic is a practical application of the shown method?

(4) What other approaches are we aware of in this field?

(5) What are the gaps and open questions regarding the overall topic and the particular papers?